1st Annual Career and Resource Fair

- Over 25 Employers and Organizations participated in the 1st Annual Career and Resource Fair including: LIRR, UPS, USPS, New York Community Bank, Long Beach School District, Nassau Community College Workforce Development and Town of Hempstead Department of Occupational Resources.
- Over 100 job seekers attended
- Paid for through New York State Literacy Zone funding
Parent-Child Home Program

- Provides Long Beach families with the necessary skills and tools to ensure their children achieve success by providing
  - Two years of twice-weekly 30 minute visits to families with children between the ages of 16 months and 2 years
  - Home visitors provide the family with a high-quality book or educational toy that is a gift to the family and are often the first such items in the home.
  - Using the book or toy, the literacy specialist models reading, conversation, and play activities designed to stimulate parent-child interaction, develop language and literacy skills, and build school readiness.
- Every child enters school ready to succeed because every parent has the knowledge and resources to build school readiness where it starts: the home.
- Funded through a Federal Grant and the Rausch/Hagedorn foundations
