III. President Mininsky called for Board of Education Comments

• President Mininsky asked about the training costs; some parents did not want to pay for exams (biggest costs are tests; some reimbursement from state); enjoyed presentation; questioned what non-IB students are doing (65% take at least one college course). Congratulated Fragments and students; shout out to Wrestling Team.
• Board Member Bodnar asked if we subsidize all of the exams (component of fee); impressed with NIKE.
• Board Member Vrona asked if guided pathways start in 8th grade, how do the advisors have a clue (passions, interests explored); questioned the realignment of senior English (rewriting curriculum to better align with GPS- tests for NCC); voiced concerns about science results (added multimedia on line learning for science and math); asked if IB class sizes were the same as regular classes (depends); too many large classes with 30 students; what are we doing to help those kids (most classes are smaller).
IV. Student Organization Announcements
None

V. President Mininsky called for Questions and Comments from the Public – Items on Today’s Agenda Only
• Jill Butensky – 38 Fairway Road – thanked amazing teachers in LB, son has 30 students in all classes; too many students in afterschool help; asked about caps.
